EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Four Generations of Family Gather To Extend Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bastin.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bastin was beautifully and appropriately celebrated at their home on top of Hall's Gap on last Tuesday, August 8th. All of their nine living children were present except two who were unavoidably detained, and the day was spent in a happy family reunion, all joining in felicitations and congratulations to this popular couple who have passed the golden milestone together as they have journeyed along life's pathway, hand in hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Bastin were married in Lincoln county fifty years ago by Rev. David and have made their home here ever since. They have had a very happy married life. Ten children were born to their union of whom nine are living and those and families of their own, go to make up a large circle of loved ones to call them father and mother and grandfather and grandmother. There are 36 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. In all there were 52 present on this happy occasion and a fine old-fashioned country dinner was spread, with Mr. Bastin at the head of the table and Mrs. Bastin at the foot.

Many beautiful presents of gold and silver were brought to Mr. and Mrs. Bastin as testimonials to the love in which they are held, among them a gold watch, a handsome gold headed walking cane and other useful gifts.

The children, grandchildren and their children and relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bastin and daughter Mrs. Lee H. Mitchell and her two children, of Pittsburg, Ky., the latter being the great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bastin; Mrs. Emil Baer and daughter, of Baraboo, Wisconsin; Mrs. Wm. (nowman) and two children of Fort McWay, Fla.; S. L. Bastin, wife and two children of East Herkinstown, Ky.; Mrs. James Boone, her husband and children, of this county; Mrs. James Hunt, her husband and children, of this county; and Mrs. P. H. Williams, and children of Johnson county. Two of their daughters, Mrs. Charles Davies of Stanford, and Mrs. J. W. Hall of Lewis, Kansas, were absent on account of illness in their families but the former was represented by her daughter, Miss Florence Davies.

Mr. Bastin's brother, A. H. Basson, of Lancaster, accompanied by his wife and children, Henry Bastin and wife, Ross Bastin and wife, and Clinton Hobert and Miss Mamie Bastin, all of Lancaster, were also present, and J. S. Young and wife, and Joseph Gieckey, of this county.

The occasion was a most joyous one for all, and each one left with the heartfelt wish that they will all assemble again to celebrate the second wedding celebration of this popular couple, in which the host of their friends and loved ones of Mr. and Mrs. Bastin all over Lincoln and elsewhere will sincerely unite.

PARKSVILLE.

Mr. W. A. Brown has returned from Chicago.

Mrs. James Jones who has typhoid fever, was in a very serious condition yesterday. She resides near Alton Springs.

Mrs. C. T. Cieland and children, of Middlesboro, came down last evening and will be with the family of Prof. T. E. Cieland, a few days.

An infant child of Samuel Streeter died Wednesday night and was buried at Chestnut Grove. The parents have the sympathy of all their friends.

Albert Gilpin, the eight year old son of Henry Gilpin, in trying to get on a moving wagon fell and the wagon is supposed to have passed over his body. The wagon was loaded with granulated sugar and driven by Jordan Carter, who was taking the sugar for the Cumberland grocery Co. from Junction City to Lebanon. The driver did not know the little boy was injured. His little brother was with him but was so frightened did not tell Mr. Carter but went home and told his mother that Albert was dead. The boy is bruised from hip to top of his head, the wagon wheel apparently scraping some of his face. Strange as it is the boy is still alive.

NARROW ESCAPE

For Number of Persons when Coal-wheel on Separator Broke.

Last week while the threshing machine outfit of Bartels and Grisell of the East End was at work on the farm of David Scott, near Goshen a coal-wheel on the separator broke and the machinery was badly damaged. Mr. Scott was sitting within a few feet of the separator when the accident occurred and a number of children were playing nearby, and they had a very narrow escape from serious injury and perhaps death as the jar from the sudden stop of the machinery caused many pieces of the casting to break and fly in every direction, some of them being hurl'd over a hundred feet away. It is almost a miracle that some of the flying metal did not strike Mr. Scott or the children who were so close by when the accident occurred.

DAIRY SPECIALIST.

To Lecture Here on the 19th, at Re-quest of Local Creamery Co.

Alvin J. Reed, Dairy Specialist, and Prof. S. R. Bryant of State University Lexington, have been selected by the officers of the Stanford Creamery Company to deliver a lecture here on Saturday August 19th in the interest of the dairy industry of Lincoln county. These gentlemen are thoroughly conversant with the dairy business and are sent out by the Experiment Station at Lexington at the special request of the Stanford Creamery Company.

What they have to say will be of value to every person owning a cow, give them a good hearing and find out the possibilities of the dairy business. Both morning and afternoon sessions. The ladies are cordially invited.

EAST HIGHLAND.

The Rev. Ed. Hubbard of Stanford, is conducting a series of meetings in this place with great success. The series of deliveries by this Godly personage are being received by a people seeking the truth as Christ so planned. Each gospel discourse from the beginning has been with increased effectiveness. His illustrations and explanations have been so plain and simple that even the little ones can easily comprehend them.

We feel the paramount necessity of the like evangelizing throughout this land, and our prayers are that the great omnipotent will so abundantly bless him and his Christ like helpers that they may continue in the grand and most excellent work in which they are engaged in Christ's vineyard.

Miss Kate Hicks, age 22 years met a sad and very painful death following the explosion of a lamp at her fathers home at Murksbury.

Mrs. George Ballou died at her home in Richmond Thursday at 3 o'clock. The deceased had been failing in health for several years past but was always bright and cheerful and a fine Christian character. Besides her husband two sons and three daughters mourn the death, she was a daughter of Mrs. Edna Francis of this place whom she frequently visited. Five sisters and three brothers also mourn her death.

Mr. John Laekey aged 81 years died at his home near McCreey after a general decline. Done son and four daughters survive him his wife having died years ago. The burial was in Lancaster cemetery. A pioneer a faithful fellow, of Christ has passed from out the ranks of men but leaves a glorious heritage for his children.

Twenty-five thousand people attended the Blue Grass fair last Thursday and the crowd was almost as large Friday, notwithstanding the terrific heat. The man with the flying machine amazed everyone the show of stock was splendid and altogether the fair was a tremendous success in every way. Nothing too good can be said of Secretary Jonett Shouse and his untiring energy, which made make it what it was.

A primary will be called to nominate a democratic candidate for judge of the court of appeals in this district at the time of the regular November. Judge John D. Carroll, of Henry county will probably have no opposition for renomination and re-election. He has made a splendid record in his first term on the bench and by all means deserves an endorsement.

Coins Turned to Snakes.

A money trick of Hindu jugglers invariably causes great amusement to every one who sees it except the victim of the joke. The juggler takes three copper coins and places them in the palm of some one in the group of spectators, bidding him hold them as tightly as he can. By and by it seems to the holder of the coins that they are swelling and growing hot. They seem to be moving about. He holds his hand closed as long as he can and then opens it, always with a gasp of fright, for there wriggling about are three tiny snakes.—New York Tribune.

The best magazine in the world is the Saturday Evening Post. It has more good, high class short fiction than any other magazine published and is issued once a week. The Danville Messenger says:

One of the events of this week which insured interest, amusement and pleasure in Danville society was the pretty porch party given Thursday morning by Mrs. John Chestnut in honor of Mrs. D. W. Mahan. Mrs. Chestnut's handsome home and porch green rooms and parlor. Mrs. Chestnut was decorated in yellow flowers and not received in a beautiful toilet of tan voile. Mrs. Mahan wore a fastening gown of white embroidered muslin over light blue silk. Mrs. Sam Slaughter of Muskogee, Okla., wore a handsome black gown and Mrs. Bessie Hardin of Stanford, wore a pretty white gown. The color scheme of yellow was carried out in the delicious refreshments. The hostess understoods to the meet of a point the art of entertaining. Some fifty guests enjoyed the elegant social affair.

The Danville Messenger has the following announcement of an engagement of interest here: One of the most beautiful affairs of this week was the announcement party given this afternoon of Emma Kenneth by Miss Little Cecil. The elder scheme of green and crystal was carried out in all of the decorations. The table was a how of imitation hair fern, hanging from the chandelier was a basket of white pond lillies tied with green twine. Twelve crystal vases tied together with crystal emblems of maiden hair was around the table. At the coffee-drinking course, Miss Cecil raised her cup and exclaimed: "Oh! girls, I see my best friend, a little blonde, and a dark-haired man are to be married in November." It proved true for Mrs. David Dunn has since announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Cora Dunn, and Dr. Oscar L. May. This announcement is of much interest in this city where both parties are well known. Dr. May is a promising young physician, of Danville, and the bride-to-be is a popular society girl and is much admired.

TO WATER USERS

The Standard Water, Light and Ice Company requests users of city water to be as economical as possible during the present dry spell. There is at present no danger of a shortage in the supply, if users will be careful not to waste it. The experience of four years ago should be warning to water users that this is the wise course to pursue and the W. L. & I. Company hopes that its patrons will govern themselves accordingly.

The singers of all the churches are earnestly requested to present on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Christian church to practice for the Union Sunday School Convention which will be held here on Aug. 30th. Mrs. J. G. Carpenter, Chairman Music Committee.

IN MEMORY OF BRO. BURKE.

After a long pilgrimage in this life the heavenly Father saw best to take him in his garner a grain that was good and ripe.

He had reached the age of 87 years and they were full of good deeds and words for the Master and he never grew tired of praying the Lord. For he looked for him above where all in love. So he could say with Paul, I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course honorably there will be a crown of righteousness laid up for me in the last day.

He fell asleep in Jesus July 18th without a struggle, and sang and talked sitting in a chair the evening before he passed over the river. He always said he did not want to be set up with no struggle at death, so God saw fit to grant his wish and not one night was he watched over only by the Heavenly host, and the strong arm of God that closed his eyes in death. And may that mighty one be with his beloved wife and bring comfort to her sad heart is the prayer of her daughter.

G. C. HELM.

Another Tribute.

Bro. H. M. Burke died July 18th. He had lived to the ripe old age of 81. He joined the Methodist church at the age of 16 and was converted two years later. About 1849 he joined the Baptist church and was shortly after ordained to preach. He continued in the work as long as his health permitted often working for a mere pittance, some times receiving as little as $35 a year for his services.

He had been in very delicate health for about 20 years and has received help from the Baptist Minister's Aid society. He had performed more marriages ceremonies than any other minister in this part of the country. He enjoyed the respect and esteem of both old and young, white and black in the community where he lived. Being one of the most earnest, devoted, consistent and liberal Christians I ever knew. He was even ready to join in with any denomination to uphold the standard of Christ and bring sinners to penitence. While differing with other Christians on some doctrinal points he was ever ready to let the mantle of charity bridge these differences and join hands in the fight against sin and the devil. If our country could have more Bro. Burkes it would mean the uplifting of and community.

The high esteem in which he was held was proved by the large crowd that attended his funeral which was preached by Bro. Surles at the Baptist church in Hustonville. He was buried in the Hustonville cemetery. He leaves a wife and several children.
